Admission requirements and procedures

MASTER OF SCIENCE

Entry requirements*

- Students need to hold an undergraduate degree, obtained after a minimum of three years of study (180 ECTS) and in a subject that is relevant to the chosen degree course. Students with less than 15 years of total schooling, may not be eligible for admission to a graduate programme
- The degree has to be issued by a higher education institution that is accredited or recognised in the awarding country.
- Università Cattolica will evaluate the academic and personal background and decide if candidates meet the specific conditions for admission to the chosen programme
- Students must obtain the undergraduate degree by the end of July 2023 (September for EU students)

Language requirements*

English language proficiency (for English-taught programmes)

For applicants whose first language is not English, they will need to either:

- Have successfully completed a degree programme taught in the English language or
- Have an IELTS Academic overall score of at least 6.0 to 6.5 or a TOEFL iBT overall score of at least 84 to 85. Università Cattolica's TOEFL iBT institution code is 2605.

Other language certificates may be accepted; full list and programme-specific minimum scores are available online at › international.unicatt.it

Italian language proficiency (for Italian-taught programmes)

Non-native Italian speakers, or candidates that have not carried out their previous schooling in Italian, should have a minimum knowledge of Italian, which is a B2 in the European framework of measurement of language proficiency, corresponding to about 120 hours of language instruction. Submitting proof of Italian proficiency together with the application is encouraged. However, if no evidence is submitted, an Italian Language Test will be administered before the beginning of the academic year.

SPECIALISING MASTER

Entry requirements*

- Completion of at least an undergraduate degree, obtained after a minimum of three years of study (180 ECTS), except for the Masters in Economics and Finance and in Credit Risk Management (see programme-specific entry requirements)
- The degree must be obtained before the start of the programme
- The degree must be issued by a higher education institution that is accredited or recognised in the awarding country
- Università Cattolica will evaluate candidates' academic and personal background and decide if they meet the specific conditions for admission to the chosen graduate programme
- Priority consideration will be given to applicants who recently graduated and have limited work experience, except for the Masters in International Business - Executive (see programme-specific entry requirements)

Language requirements*

English language proficiency

Applicants whose first language is not English or who have not completed a programme taught entirely in English, are required to provide evidence of a B2 level of English proficiency; either via a certificate IELTS Academic (overall score of at least 6.0) or a TOEFL iBT (overall score of at least 84 - Cattolica's TOEFL institution code is 2605) or an online interview with the relevant Master committee.

* There may be some variations based on the specific programme and/or the student's academic system of origin. Please check the programme webpage or contact › international.inquiry@unicatt.it to have the most up-to-date programme details and specific entry requirements and deadlines before submitting your application.
